
Benedikt Rohrßen

VBER 2022: EU Competition Law for Vertical Agreements

Digital, Dual, Exclusive and Selective
Distribution plus Franchising

 Springer

Contents

1	EU Competition Law at a Glance	1
1.1	Why EU Competition Law Matters	4
1.2	Where EU Competition Law Matters	6
1.2.1	European Union	7
1.2.2	European Economic Area	8
1.2.3	Parallel Application of EU and National Competition Laws	9
1.2.4	Switzerland	11
1.2.5	UK	16
1.2.6	Rest of the World	18
1.3	The Principle: Prohibition of Anti-competitive Agreements	19
1.4	Agreements Outside Article 101 TFEU	21
1.4.1	Agreements Between SME	22
1.4.2	Agreements of Only Local Effect	23
1.4.3	Agreements of Minor Importance	25
1.4.4	Agreements Based on State Action	28
1.4.5	Agency Agreements	30
1.4.6	Intercompany Agreements	34
1.4.7	Agreements with Ancillary Restraints	36
1.4.8	Subcontracting Agreements	38
1.4.9	Selective Distribution Systems Complying with “Metro”	39
1.5	Block Exemptions as Safe Harbour	40
1.6	Outside the VBER: The Article 101(3) TFEU Exception	43
	Appendix: Test Scheme for Vertical Agreements Under Swiss Law . . .	47
	References	48
2	VBER 2022: The Safe Harbour for Distribution Agreements	51
2.1	Article 2 VBER: Exemption for Vertical Restraints	57
2.2	Structure, Definitions, and Players of the VBER	60
2.3	Exemption of Vertical Restraints: Principal Scope	63
2.4	Exemption of Vertical Restraints: Re-Exceptions/Limits	64

2.4.1	Agreements with Associations, Article 2(2) and Article 9 VBER	64
2.4.2	Agreements on Intellectual Property Rights, Article 2(3) VBER	66
2.4.3	Dual Distribution: Agreements of Competitors, Article 2(3) VBER	68
2.5	Information Exchange in Dual Distribution, Article 2(5) VBER	72
2.6	Hybrid Online Platforms, Article 2(6) VBER	75
2.7	Priority of other Block Exemption Regulations	77
	References	77
3	Articles 3 and 8 VBER: Market Share Thresholds	81
3.1	The Thresholds	81
3.2	How to Determine the Relevant Markets	82
	References	83
4	Article 4 VBER: Hardcore Restrictions—Black Clauses	85
4.1	How (Not) to Restrict the Buyer’s Sale Price	88
4.1.1	What’s New for Price Maintenance?	89
4.1.2	The Principle: RRP Yes, RPM and MAP No	90
4.1.3	The Exception: Short-Time Measures, Efficiency Gains	93
4.1.4	Special Case: Agency Agreements	95
4.1.5	Special Case: Fulfilment (Multi-Level Distribution)	96
4.1.6	Practical Tips for the Exchange on Pricing	97
4.2	Exclusive Distribution Systems	98
4.2.1	What’s New for Exclusive Distribution?	99
4.2.2	Restricting Active Versus Passive Sales	99
4.2.3	Shared Exclusivity	102
4.2.4	Passing on the Sales Restrictions	103
4.2.5	Territory and Customer Restrictions: Summary	106
4.3	Selective Distribution Systems	109
4.3.1	What’s New for Selective Distribution?	110
4.3.2	How to Escape Article 101 TFEU Under the Metro Criteria	111
4.3.3	How to Set Up Selective Distribution?	112
4.3.4	Sustainability as Selection Criterion	113
4.3.5	Restricting Cross-Supplies: How to Reduce Grey-Market Sales	115
4.3.6	Restricting Passive Sales: How to Comply with the Geo-Blocking Regulation	117
4.3.7	Territory and Customer Restrictions: Summary	118
4.4	Free Distribution	118
4.4.1	What’s New for Free Distribution?	120

4.4.2	Which Hardcore Restrictions to Avoid in Free Distribution?	120
4.5	Internet Sales and Advertising Restrictions	121
4.5.1	What’s New for Digital Distribution?	121
4.5.2	The Principle: Maintain the Effective Use of the Internet	122
4.5.3	First Re-exception: Restrictions of Online Sales	123
4.5.4	Second Re-Exception: Restrictions of Online Advertising	125
4.5.5	Third (Unwritten) Re-Exception: System-Specific Restrictions	126
4.6	Aftermarket Restrictions: Sale of Components as Spare Parts	126
4.6.1	What’s New for Aftermarket Restrictions?	127
4.6.2	Aftermarket Hardcore Restriction vs Restriction of Subcontracting	129
4.6.3	Aftermarket Restrictions: Details on Article 4(f) VBER	129
	References	132
5	Article 5 VBER: Excluded Restrictions—Grey Clauses	135
5.1	What’s New for Grey Clauses?	135
5.2	Non-compete Obligations, Article 5(1)(a) and (2) VBER	136
5.2.1	Maximum Term: Five Years	137
5.2.2	New: Evergreening Non-compete Obligations	138
5.2.3	Re-Exception: Outlets Owned or Leased by Supplier	138
5.2.4	Individual Assessment of Non-Competes	139
5.3	Post-Contractual Non-Competes, Article 5(1)(b) and (3) VBER	140
5.3.1	Direct Non-Compete Obligations	141
5.3.2	Indirect Non-Compete Obligations	141
5.4	Non-compete in Selective Distribution, Article 5(1)(c) VBER	141
5.5	Parity Obligations, Article 5(1)(d) VBER	142
5.5.1	What’s New for Across-Platform Retail Parity Obligations?	143
5.5.2	Other Parity Obligations	145
	References	146
6	Article 6 and 7 VBER: Withdrawal/Non-application	147
6.1	What’s New for Withdrawing the Benefit of the VBER?	147
6.2	Withdrawal of the Benefit in Individual Cases	148
6.3	What’s New for Non-applying the VBER?	150
6.4	Non-application of the VBER	150
	References	152

7	Franchise Systems	153
7.1	What's New for Franchising?	156
7.2	Which Competition Rules to Comply with in Franchising?	157
	References	159
8	Dual Distribution and Other Dualisms	161
8.1	Dual Pricing	161
8.2	Dual Distribution	163
8.3	Dual Role Agents	164
	References	165
9	Digital Distribution: Online Sales and Online Platforms	167
9.1	Online Sales Restriction, Practical Overview	167
9.2	Pure Digital Distribution	169
9.3	Online Intermediation Services	169
	Appendix: Digital Distribution—Selection Criteria	171
	References	175
10	Practical Implementation of the VBER 2022	177
10.1	Analysing the Business and the Supply Chain	178
10.2	Gap Analysis: Checklist of Change	180
10.3	Designing/Restructuring Distribution Systems	184
10.3.1	Combining Vertical Restraints	184
10.3.2	Combining Different Distribution Systems: Reciprocal Protection	186
10.3.3	Combining Exclusive and Selective Distribution in a Territory?	187
10.3.4	Transition Periods for Implementing Change	188
10.4	Severability Clauses as a Loophole?	189
	Appendix to Chapter 10	192
	References	211
	Appendix 1: Synopsis VBER 2010 vs 2022	213
	Appendix 2: List of Laws	229
	Index	233